A word from our tournament director:

It is amazing to reflect on the last 11 years of us hosting the Vintage Open, but honestly, for me it's the last 30. I was first introduced to disc golf in 1989 by my stepdad Jim Akins (PDGA #2498). My love for disc golf was born the first time I saw him throw a drive, and of course it only grew as he taught me how to play as well. Often he would invite me to tag along as he traveled to pro tournaments. And if I wasn't able to make the trip he was always faithful to bring me back a custom tournament stamped disc. Oh, how I loved getting those! And we had frisbees everywhere in the house. Well, he had frisbees everywhere. In fact, he still does. And he's still playing. The game is every much a part of him now as it was 30 years ago. This is the beauty of disc golf. It's truly an amazing sport, and I am grateful to still be a part of it.

The Vintage Open wouldn't exist without my stepdad. But it's not just him. There are so many people who have contributed to helping make this tournament what it is today. So many people continue to volunteer, donate, serve and welcome. What's crazy is that we started this entire thing to help raise funds for our college summer project at First Baptist Church, and we have been able to keep doing just that! God has certainly blessed us. Our church, along with others in our community, have been so supportive and welcoming. Our local disc golf club continues to work and serve in making our courses some of the best in the state. Our city has been behind us. The local businesses have shown tremendous support. College students continue to serve and give of their time. It's all a collective effort, and it's very much a community one. That makes me happy, and I hope your visit to Russellville will bring great memories. No matter the outcome of your play, it's the memories that will last. After all, I don't remember any round scores of my stepdad, but I loved every bit of being with him. So shoot lots of birdies, and overcome when it doesn't fly your way. Remember why you love to play this game, and enjoy the ride. Let's have a great week of disc golf!

We are thrilled about this year's custom made trophies that will be awarded to top finishers! We had some fantastic volunteers that helped craft these, with each "V" having it's own acrylic paint pour. Very unique and there are no two alike!
